

This August, Phoenix Conservatory of Music (PCM) and the Country Music Awards Foundation will be launching a Music Education Impact Project. This will bring resources directly to your districts and music classrooms, at no cost to district, participating teachers, or schools. This amazing project has three components:

Professional Development for Music Educators

Phoenix Conservatory of Music will produce three professional development sessions that can be viewed/taken remotely through technology and present six live professional development for local music educators: For more information, please contact regnixon@pcmrocks.org. We are offering below topics as well as taking ideas on what you need.

- ✦ Teaching Your Students to write Contemporary Music (Songwriting 101)
- ✦ Music Creation through Technology
- ✦ Teaching A-typical ensembles that are culturally responsive (e.g. popular music ensembles, ukulele ensembles, jazz combos, mariachi or Latin jazz)

Communities of Practice

Phoenix Conservatory of Music will facilitate and host three Annual Music Educator Networking Events to create a community of practice.

Target Dates are:

- ✦ Thursday, September 21, 2019
- ✦ Thursday, November 21, 2019
- ✦ Thursday, January 23, 2019
- ✦ Thursday, March 26, 2019
- ✦ Thursday, July 30, 2019

If you are interested in participating, presenting a poster session, or want to create a topic for discussion, or would like to have input of timing, food, and door prizes- please contact regnixon@pcmrocks.org.

Adopt School Music Programs in Need

Adopt three school music programs in need with 84 hours of flexible resources for each school: 12 hours for musicianship class and 72 hours of specialized coaching designed to either develop skill sets or build program and educator capacity through modeling. For more information, please contact regnixon@pcmrocks.org.
